

William J. Wider Papers Container List

Photo #1

Dr. Curtis & his son Mark in Guam 1913

Photo #2

Mark with Grandma in Guam 1914

Photo #3

Unknown

Photo #4

Mark 1914 in Guam

Photo #5

Mark with Grandma in Guam 1914

Photo #6

Mark with Grandma in Guam 1914

Photo #7

Late Captain Curtis with his son in Guam 1914

Photo #8

Mark with Grandma in Guam 1914

Photo #9

Mark in Guam 1914

Photo #10

Mark with Father on Guam 1914

Photo #11

Mark with Grandma in Guam 1914

Photo #12

Mark with Mother in Guam 1914

Photo #13

Mark in Guam 1914

Photo #14

Mark Curtis and his mother in Guam 1914

Photo #15

Mark Curtis on ships in Port with some friends

Photo #16

Not sure whether this is in Guam or China when my Grandmother was with the Curtises

Photo #17

Not sure whether this was in Guam or when they came back to San Diego Navy Yard

Photo #18

Crew with Dr. Curtis who is 2nd from left middle row

Photo #19

Mark Sears Curtis in Guam 1914

Photo #20

Officers on Ship returning to States from Guam in 1915 Captain Curtis 5th from left in front row

Photo #21

Rose Curtis at side of their house in Guam after the birth of their son Mark

Photo #22

Mark Curtis and his Grandmother in front of their house in Guam in 1914

Photo #23

Dr. Curtis in the rear of their house in Guam 1914

Photo #24

On tennis court in Guam 1912 Dr. Curtis

Photo#25

Rose Curtis in Guam 1914

Photo #26

Rose Curtises Mother, Mrs. Rat Bearwald in Guam before the birth of Mark Sears Curtis

Photo #27

Mark Curtis and his mother in front of their house in Guam in 1914

Photo #28

My father, Joseph R. Bearwald with the late Capt. Elmer Eaton Curtis, leaving on October 19, 1912 for Guam from San Francisco

Photo #29

On tennis court in Guam 1912 Rose Curtis

Photo #30

Capt. Curtis, his wife Rose Bearwald Curtis, and a Mrs. Watson on vacation in 1913 on or in Meritzo

Photo #31

Mark Sears Curtis born September 18, 1914